

Video Contest

SBClick.com is looking for locals that love Santa Barbara and want to show this love in a 1-minute video. (There's a cash prize in it for ya!)

What makes Santa Barbara special? Solstice, the abundance of wilderness hikes, the gorgeous beaches, our downtown, or maybe just a stroll in the Mission. You tell us in the form of a 1-minute video clip and you may win $1000! All finalists will be showcased on television on Santa Barbara Channels and on SBclick's Web and mobile platforms!

Win $1,000 by submitting the best video!

The deadline for entry is St. Patrick's Day: Wednesday, March 17, 2010.

To submit your video:

- Log in to your SBclick account or become a registered user.
- Select the video tab
- Upload your video and title of video in the required fields.
- You are automatically entered to win!

Rules:

1. Please keep your video from 1:00-3:00 minutes
2. Videos must be submitted in the following format: H.264 MP4, QuickTime compatible.
*The winning entrant may be asked to provide additional formats.
3. Submit by Wednesday, March 17, 2010.
4. All videos and the making of videos must abide by all local, state and federal laws.
5. We have the right to use and distribute videos once they are submitted.

6. In order to submit a video, you too become a registered SBclick user and must adhere to the normal privacy policy.
7. We reserve the right to research a video to make sure it was created solely by the entrant.
8. The winner will be selected by the SBclick team and we will attempt to contact the winner twice via email and phone before we announce another winner.
9. SBclick must receive at least 50 video entries before they announce a winner. SBclick has the right to extend the submission deadline until 50 videos are submitted.

We want to see Santa Barbara through YOUR eyes. What would you tell or show a tourist about Santa Barbara if they asked your opinion?

We look forward to seeing your work! Get creative!
